

Seminar Lead: Rev. Dr. Jack Custer

Fr Jack Custer has had a long ministry in pastoring inner city and suburban parishes, serving as dean and professor in two seminaries, and has preached and lectured in parishes around the USA. He earned a licentiate from the Pontifical Biblical Institute and a doctorate from the Pontifical Gregorian University. He focuses on the interplay among biblical exegesis, homiletics, and hymnography in the Byzantine Tradition. He has published 4 books on the Old and New Testaments, several volumes of biblical meditations and, most recently, an exhaustive commentary on the Akathistos Hymn to the Theotokos.

REGIS ST. MICHAEL'S
FACULTY OF THEOLOGY
Toronto School of Theology (in the University of Toronto)

Orthodox Christian Studies
FACULTY OF DIVINITY OF TRINITY COLLEGE

METROPOLITAN ANDREY SHEPTYTSKY INSTITUTE OF Eastern Christian Studies
IN THE UNIVERSITY OF ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

Finding our Place in Paradise:

Rootedness & Relationships in the Book of Genesis

Sheptytsky House, Seminar Room
5 Elmsley Pl. | Toronto, ON

Tuesday Afternoons
13:00

January 14

Creation as Revelation

January 21

The Complex Human Creature

January 28

Initiative & Obedience:
Abraham & Isaac

February 4

Metanoia & Maturity:
Joseph and His Brothers

Materials and lunch will be provided, but registration is necessary.

To register:

Join us for liturgy at 12 at St. Sophia Chapel before (Elmsley Hall 81 St. Mary St.)

For more information email:
sheptytsky@utoronto.ca